ALLEGED VIOLATIONS

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation No. Nature of Noncompliance

1. The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.

A petition for a warrant was submitted to the Court on June 21, 2012, reporting an arrest for Domestic Assault on June 18, 2012. Your Honor issued a sealed warrant on June 25, 2012. Mr. Manier was subsequently arrested on July 2, 2012, and appeared before the Honorable John Bryant on July 16, 2012, for his detention and probable cause hearing. The Court found probable cause was substantiated, but released Mr. Manier on the same conditions of his supervised release pending his revocation hearing, with the added condition that he was to have no contact, directly or indirectly, with the victim of the alleged Domestic Assault.

Mr. Manier appeared in the Wilson County General Sessions Court on August 1, 2012, on the Domestic Assault charge. The case was continued for six months, with the expectation of dismissal, provided that Mr. Manier stay away from the victim and pay court costs. His next scheduled court appearance in Wilson County is February 14, 2013.

Mr. Manier's revocation hearing was held before Your Honor on August 9, 2012. By agreed order, Mr. Manier's supervised release conditions were modified to add a period of home detention for three months, beginning immediately, and the Court scheduled a status conference for February 25, 2013.

Compliance with Supervision Conditions and Prior Interventions:

Roberto Manier began his term of supervised release on January 13, 2012, and is due to expire on January 12, 2015. He currently resides with his mother in Lebanon, Tennessee. Mr. Manier was employed by Famous Footwear in Lebanon, through All Star Personnel, from May 5, 2012, to May 22, 2012. His employment was terminated due to his slow production/performance. Mr. Manier is presently seeking full-time employment at the direction of the probation officer.

The probation officer met with Mr. Manier on August 9, 2012, following his revocation hearing. His electronic reporting device was installed and the rules of electronic monitoring were explained, signed, and he was provided a copy. On August 12 and August 13, 2012, Mr. Manier violated the conditions of electronic monitoring by unplugging his monitoring device when he left his residence for an approved activity. Upon his return, he plugged the monitoring device back in. After questioning by the probation officer, Mr. Manier reported he did not know that he was not supposed to unplug the monitoring device. Mr. Manier was verbally reprimanded and re-instructed as to all conditions of his electronic monitoring, specifically to not move, disconnect, or tamper with the monitoring device.

On August 14, 2012, Mr. Manier requested mental health treatment and noted he cannot pay for these services on his own, due to lack of employment. He reported many stressors in his life including: no job, no money, his mother's illness and caring for her, not being able to see his child in Kentucky, no transportation, the pending domestic charge, his pending revocation hearing, and now the electronic monitoring device. The probation officer spoke with Mr. Manier in length about possible relapse and he reported no desire to use illegal drugs or drink alcohol. Mr. Manier reported he does not need "crazy" pills, but wants to participate in a mental health assessment and/or treatment to help him deal with his issues. Mr. Manier has previously participated in a substance abuse assessment at Cumberland Mental Health in Lebanon, with no recommended treatment. He continues to participate in random drug testing.

On August 17, 2012, a waiver of hearing form to modify the conditions of his supervised release was thoroughly explained to Mr. Manier and he stated he understood his rights to representation by counsel and to a hearing. Mr. Manier voluntarily signed the waiver to modify the conditions of his supervised release.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

It is recommended that Mr. Manier's special conditions be modified as indicated in the petition so that his need for mental health treatment can be assessed and necessary treatment be provided. The U.S. Attorney's Office has been advised of the offender's noncompliance and the probation officer's recommendation for modification of the release conditions.
